Reading closely

Read the short passage. Add your thoughts directly on this page.

The library was quiet, but Mina could not settle. Her unfinished letter lay beside an open book. Outside, the last bus pulled away. She watched it disappear, then picked up her pen again.

What do you notice?

Try typing an answer, circling a detail, or highlighting evidence.

Build your response

Use your observations from page 1 to write a paragraph.

Point: What does the passage suggest about Mina?

Evidence: Which detail supports your idea?

Explanation: How does the language create meaning?

Your paragraph

Try typing an answer, circling a detail, or highlighting evidence.